

Judy B. Scherer, Ph.D.
7475 Mobley Court
Winston, Georgia 30187
Home (678) 715-2772
Work (770) 651-2081

Objective: To use knowledge, administrative skills and work experience effectively to enhance student learning and in the professional development of all stakeholders of the school system.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Experience in all administrative aspects including budget development, policy writing, public relations, legal matters and daily operations of a larger school system.
- Demonstrated ability to design and implement innovative curriculum programs focused on enhancing student achievement and workforce development
- Effectively use organizational development skills to empower teachers, students and administrators to improve organizational effectiveness
- Implemented site-based management allowing the major decision making to take place at the local school level while providing guidance and support
- Establish a strong home/school/community relationships to create win-win for all stakeholders

Work Experience:

Administrative:

- 2003-pres. Deputy Superintendent of Schools, Douglas County
- 1995-2003 Assistant Superintendent for Curriculum and Instruction, Coweta County
- 1989-1995 Principal--Pointe South Elementary (K-5, 1000 students) Georgia School of Excellence in 1995
- 1987-1989 Assistant Principal--Tara Elementary (K-5, 650 students)

College Teaching:

- 1981-1985 Assistant Professor of Education, Tift College. Duties included development and teaching of major courses in special education, supervising student teachers, chairing the committee on admission to teacher education, and serving as an academic advisor to students.

Elementary/Secondary Teaching:

- 1976-1981 Taught both elementary and secondary special education classes in a variety of school settings. Experiences ranged from severely handicapped to high school MIMH, LD/BD students.
- 1985-1987

Education:

- Ph.D. 1987 Education Administration and Supervision. Georgia State University.
- Ed.S. 1980 Behavior Disorders / Special Education. Georgia State University.
- M.A. 1978 Interrelated Special Education. East Tennessee State University.
- B.S. 1976 Mental Retardation. Virginia Commonwealth University.

Related Experiences:

- 1990-1991 Education's Leadership Georgia. Georgia Leadership Academy.
- 1991 Co-author of grant proposal to the New American School Development Corp.
- 1991 Georgia 2000, Ad Hoc Committee, Readiness to Learn
- 1990-1995 Member of League of Professional Schools, University of Georgia
- 1993-1994 Governor's Education Leadership Institute, Georgia Leadership Academy
- 1993-1995 Completed the Georgia Superintendent Professional Development Program
- 1998-2002 Steering committee for the development and implementation of Central Education Center Career Academy
- 2003-pres Member of the Gold Dome Group—monitors current legislative activities, SDOE board rule development, Charter School petitions, etc. providing feedback to local board and lobbying for educational causes.
- 2005-pres. Completed SACS/CASI training; served on accreditation team—Chaired team for Franklin County, Florida
- 2006-2007 Emergency Management Training, FEMA

Publications and Presentations:

Caskey, W. E., Inman, E., Menge, S., Robinson, J., and Washburn, F. Placement Decisions Based on the Woodcock and PIAT: A Caveat. A paper presented at the 1981 National Association of School Psychologists, Houston, Texas.

Robinson, Judy H. Career Patterns and Current Job Satisfaction Among Education, Accounting, and Arts and Sciences Graduates: A Ten-year Follow-up Study. Unpublished dissertation, 1987. Georgia State University.

Robinson, Judy H. and Westlund, Ginger. MAGIC: Multi-aged Grouping in Curriculum. Presentation to South Carolina Early Childhood Association. Hilton Head, SC. January 14, 1995

Loftin, Kelly, Robinson, Judy H. and Whitlock, Mark. Central Educational Center. Presentation to the National School Boards Association. San Diego, CA. March 25, 2001.

Robinson, Judy H. Using Test Data to Improve Student Achievement. Presentation to Georgia Association of Curriculum and Instruction Supervisors. Athens, GA September 27, 2001.

Robinson, Judy H. Utilizing Test Scores for School Improvement. Presentation to the Georgia Association of Educational Leaders (GAEL). Atlanta, Georgia February 4, 2002.

Scherer, Judy B. et al. Changing School Culture through Diversity Training. National Staff Development Conference presentation. Nashville, Tennessee. December 2006.

Professional Organizations:

Georgia Association of Educational Leaders
Georgia School Superintendents Association
Association of Elementary School Principals; National, State, and Local
Georgia Association of Curriculum Supervisors, Director of District 13, 1999- 2002
Phi Delta Kappa; McIntosh Chapter
Professional Association of Georgia Educator

Community Service and Involvement:

Graduate of and member of Leadership Douglas, Douglas Chamber of Commerce
American Cancer Society volunteer; Relay for Life, County Chairperson 2006- present
United Way and March of Dimes volunteer
Attend Heritage Baptist Church

Current Georgia Certification:

L-7 Leadership--Administration and Supervision
Director of Special Education

T-7 Interrelated Special Education, Gifted Education

Honors:

Kappa Delta Pi Honor Society in Education

Alpha Lambda Delta Honor Society for Women

Honor graduate of Virginia Commonwealth University

References:

Donald Remillard, Superintendent, Douglas County Schools
9030 Highway 5
Douglasville, Georgia 30133
770-651-2000

Dr. Bill McCowan, Superintendent, Gordan County Schools
Calhoun, Georgia
706-429-7366

Jimmy Bartlett, President
Metrorenovations
Lithia Springs, Georgia
770-651-2000

Richard Brooks, Superintendent, Coweta County Schools (retired)
36 Redbud Trail
Newnan, Georgia 30263
770-253-1835